Aloha everyone,
Mahalo nui loa to everyone who came out for our first Kaua'i Beekeeping Club – it was so good to finally talk story together in person.

We didn't get to every item on the agenda (a good problem to have!), but we did cover the most important pieces around community, connection, and where this hui could go next. I look forward to our next meetup- meanwhile, take a look through here for more info & opportunities.

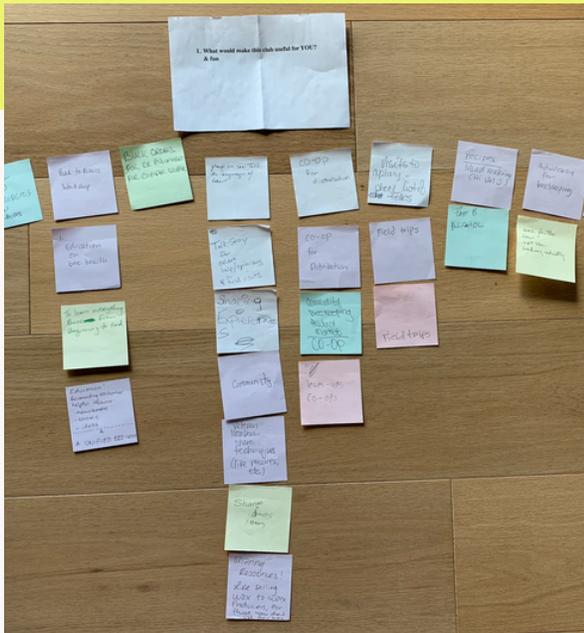

If you would like to sell your bee related product at the night market for free!, please email me.

Save your best honey for our Kauai Honey Challenge this October!

#1 SHARING INFO!

Workshops, training, listening to the lessons learned and techniques that worked

#2 DOING THE THING

Field Visits, hands on helping, product making, honey tasting

#3 HONEY CO-OP / SHARED MARKET PRESENCE

Wanna participate? email me back please

#4 BEE BUDDY NETWORK

phone list for help, sharing resources

What Next?

SOME FOLLOW UP QUESTIONS FOR YOU

We'd love your input:

- What worked well at the first meeting?
- What could we do differently next time?
- What topics would you love to talk story about or learn more about?

You can reply directly to this email with ideas, & we'll include space for suggestions at the next gathering.

So far the survey results list quarterly as the preferred meeting cadence which I can commit to hosting personally, but we do have the space every 2nd Saturday from 2-3:30 if folks want to meet more often. If someone else wants to lead a meeting at a different time or day, that can also be arranged. Please contact me.

We need an official name and logo! Got ideas? Or we can keep using Bees on Kauai logo and page. Let me know your thoughts- PLEASE!

Mahalo again for showing up, sharing openly, and helping bring this hui to life. It truly feels like something special is starting. Bee Well- Ariel

Thanks to our host, Hale Lihue

CLUB MEETUPS & NIGHT MARKET OPPORTUNITY

The main hurdle I kept hearing about, was the lack of a space to meet. Council member Bulosan stepped in and donated the opportunity to use this space and its resources, we couldn't be more grateful!
